Purpose: The Summit In-Home Bible Study Group is designed to help students grow spiritually, deepening their understanding of the God's Word, while creating strong and meaningful friendships with students and leaders.

Cost: $10

All students are invited to participate but, in order to make each group successful, every participant is asked to commit to the following:

Commitment:	Initials
Attend each Summit Group unless there are extreme circumstances that require his/her absence.
Arrive promptly, bring a Bible to each meeting and perform any preparation activity that is requested.
Demonstrate a willingness to participate in discussions and activities, treating others with courteousness and maintaining confidentiality with other participants.
Take seriously the content and work to apply it in their lives.
